U.S. District Court

Central District of California

Peter Szanto,
Debtor, Appellant

8:23-cv-01172 SVW

FROM: 8:23-bk-11187-SC

Debtor's Preliminary
Response to
OSC of 8-4-2023

May it please this honorable court.

Appellant was extremely surprised by the Court's ORDER to Show Cause.

Appellant duly and timely filed, on 7-11-2023 [DE 5], his Designation of Matters in this Appeal. Included in [DE 5] were the Statement of Issues on Appeal.

This is what is required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 8009.

Therefore, the OSC has erred in stating those matters are incomplete, unfinished.

As for the transcripts, there were no hearings in the Appealed from Bankruptcy; hence no courtroom appearances were transcribed.

1
2 On 8-4-2023, Appellant alerted the Bankruptcy clerk of this fact: there are no
3 transcripts about which to be concerned.
4

5 The next step in the appeals process is FRBP 8010: completion and transmittal of 6 the record. The duty and responsibility for those actions is assigned to the clerk of the 7 Bankruptcy court. Appellant is not involved.

8 Appellant has been waiting for NOTICE that preparation and transmittal of the 9 appellate record to this Court is complete.
10

11 This affords Appellant opportunity to amend or correct the record, if / as necessary,
12 prior to any submissions.
13

14 If Appellant has erred in his understanding of the procedures and process of this
15 Appeal, Appellant apologizes. Appellant is prepared to correct any faults or lateness
16 which the Court identifies.
17

18 Appellant prays the OSC be discharged, or altered, so as properly to alert Appellant
19 of any defects, tasks to complete or tardiness within his responsibility or control.
20

21 Most respectfully,
22
